

WE NOMINATE

William Taylor Thom Jr., once described by an associate as a geologist knowing everything worth knowing about oil and coal geology, who shares direct responsibility for one of the most important, and most exciting, "oil developments of recent years" in the Western Hemisphere. This fall nearly 60 drilling rigs are strung out along a three-state front, extending from South Dakota's Black Hills northward into the Canadian provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan, largely because of regional studies and reports completed by Thom and a fellow scientist more than a quarter century ago.

It was in 1922 that Thom and Carroll E. Dobbin, of the United States Geological Survey, coined the expression, the "Williston Basin," and defined the limits of a basin embracing some 76,000,000 acres, an area larger than the combined square mileages of New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware. Thom—in June, 1923—explained in a memorandum for the press why he thought the region provided favorable territory for oil and gas exploration. In 1952, with eight new oil-producing areas already opened up, enthusiasm for the strategically located "Williston Basin" has yet to reach its peak.

An "alumnus" of the U. S. Senate, which he served as a page-boy in 1907, and a native of Roanoke, Va., the 61-year-old Thom has been a pioneering geologist ever since he was graduated from Washington and Lee University in 1913. In World War I he headed up the planning section of the U. S. Fuel Administration's bureau of statistics and, before coming to Princeton in 1927, was senior geologist and later chief of the fuel section of the U. S. Geological Survey.

In addition to holding the Blair Professorship of Geology—the University's second oldest endowed chair—and directing the Department of Geological Engineering, Thom has played a key role in the organization of a unique, "out-door university" in the Yellowstone-Bighorn region of Montana and Wyoming. There each summer for the past 23 years, while carrying forward intensive exploratory research, a voluntary group of eminent scientists has helped train an "undergraduate body" composed of industrial geologists, young teachers, graduate students and even pre-college enthusiasts.

For constantly seeking ways and means of expanding the world's available supplies of essential minerals; for insisting that team research within science and industry holds one of the keys to the gateway of world peace; for his contributions in both defining and raising the standards of geological education in this country; he is TOWN TOPICS' nominee for

Buyer, Beware. "Door-to-door salesmen," the Princeton Business Association warned this week,
"descend on the community, make glib claims, flash fast credentials,
often demand money in advance and move on to new fields. The product, if forthcoming at all, is often found to be inferior or not as represented. Princetonians are cautioned to investigate thoroughly before purchasing, to demand to see borough licenses, and to be chary of paying money for services or products to be delivered in the future."

Through its president, Orren
Jack Turner, Jr., the association urged residents of the community to shy away from "high-pressure salesmen and door-to-door vendors, selling advertising, services and unknown products." Said Mr. Turner:
"Let the Buyer Beware" is a slogan seldom to be feared when dealing with your local merchant whom you know and whose reputation and future business success depend on his dealing with you. Don't take chances—buy in Princeton."

University Opens Sunday. Princeton University's 297th academic year will begin Sunday morning at 11 with formal opening exercises
in the Chapel. President Harold W.
Dodds will be the principal speaker.
Members of the three upper classes
register Saturday, with classroom work starting Monday.

On the campus during the past week have been some 760 members of the Class of 1956, who represent 350 different schools in this country and abroad and thereby set an all-time record. Indicative of the scholastic calibre of the average boy entering Princeton today is the fact that 50 percent of their aptitude scores were over 600, ranking in the top 15 percent of the nation.
Eighty-five percent were over 500,
or in the top half of the nation.

The present freshman class is 60
members smaller than its immediate predecessor, for which an all-time high of 809 was accepted because of the uncertainties of the draft. Princeton's view of the ideal undergraduate population is 2,850
students.

Choir College at Capacity. Admitting slightly less than 10 percent of those who applied, Westminster Choir College has again reported a "capacity-plus" enrollment of 300, higher than that of last year. An acute housing problem has existed on the campus for the past seven years, and so taxed are many of the college's facilities that the organ in the chapel is in use 24 hours a day.

Formal opening exercises were scheduled for this Thursday, marking the start of the 27th year. The co-founders of the college, Dr. John F. Williamson, president, and Dr.
Rhea B. Williamson presided.

Three new faculty members have been added. Dr. Douglas F. Bub of Princeton University will teach German; Donald McDonald, a graduate of Southern Methodist University and Union Theological Seminary, will teach organ; and Mrs. Alice Dunlap of Seattle, Wash., will join the piano faculty. Paul Oneley will return to the voice faculty but will also continue his affiliation with Columbia University.

P.C.D. Enrolls 145. A record enrollment has also been announced by Princeton Country Day School, where 145 boys will report Monday for the school's 29th year. Twenty-two students above last year's figure and two more faculty members will be on hand, with the larger classes thus being divided into smaller units to assure greater teaching effectiveness.

George L. Nicholas and Richard C. Griggs, both residents of Princeton, will join the P.C.D. faculty. Mr. Nicholas, who has had extensive experience in several leading Eastern schools, will teach English in the lower grades. Mr. Griggs, a graduate of Princeton and N. J. State Teachers College, has had tutorial and business experience in the University administration. He will teach mathematics in the first and second forms and assist in the school's business management.

The school's athletic program this year will be directed by Lester Tibbals. He has been on the faculty for the past five years.

Chest Dates Set. Heading for a record-breaking goal of $117,400, Community Chest officials have set three dates on which they will launch various phases of the drive. Tristram B. Johnson is campaign chairman.

September 29 will mark the start of business solicitation, to be directed by Stuart R. Gerber. The goal is 100 percent participation, plus improvement over last year's figure of $15,978. Employee solicitation will also start that day, under the guidance of John C. Dielrich and Julian Garney, with the goal of 100 percent participation.

October 5 will see the special gifts drive launched, with William D. Lippincott and Whenton Lane in charge. Last year's total was $58,625.

October 12 has been set as the date for the house-to-house campaign, which Frank W. Notestein will direct. Some 300 workers will seek 100 percent participation under the slogan "Give at Least One Day's Pay."

Ambulance Unit Asks Funds. The First Aid Unit of Princeton Engine Company No. 1 opened its drive for funds this week, seeking contributions to enable it to continue ambulance service to the entire community for another 12 months. Two ambulances are on 24-hour call, and residents have only to ask for them through their physicians or the police.

Last year, more than 500 trips aiding the sick and the injured were made, involving some 1,400 man-hours and covering more than 7,300 miles. Protection is provided at many public gatherings and three approved Red Cross instructors (William E. Rodweller, Robert E. McCloskey and Walter L. Conn) give constant refresher courses in first aid. It's New to Us

More Fashion for Fall, Junior
sizes who shop in The French Shop, 20 Nassau, will find a happy marriage of price and quality. Let's take a thin navy wool crepe, softly cut in a V at the neck and belted with a cummerbund of violet, orange and pale chaitreuse. You could wear it for any occasion that calls for something more than a sports dress.

Another light-weight wool has a narrow cotton rib at the round neck, and a skirt that's gently folded in front. The weave is loose enough to keep you from getting too hot. It's only $14.95.

In the French Shop, the permanently pleated orlons and jerseys run to sad and toast colors. All sizes, hey. We saw several in grey, beige and tan—all shades and all sharply pleated for keeps. (The jersey is a mixture of orlon and worsted.)

And dark cottons, of course. One junior size is bottle green with gold stripe or bronze with black. The green has a chaitreuse vestee inside the plain jacket, and the bronze has a line vestee. The whole "suit" is only $14.95.

There are short cocktail dresses,
too, colorful and rich as a boxful of mints. Many are satin, like the cool blue-grey, or pure silk like the purplish-iridescent one with a draped strapless bodice.

One cocktail dress has a full sheer skirt in gold, white and brown stripes with a bodice of plain pure gold lame. And the lame won't tarnish—that's the good news about this one.

For Anything That Grows. Ordinarily you might not think of fertilizer and fall in the same thought, but if you're planting a crop of spinach to harvest before frost or a crop you expect to winter over,
or if you have only an African violet in a window, you'll be curious about Sprout, on sale at The Wright Store, 130 Nassau.

It's a liquid fertilizer so potent
... well, it won't grow hair, but that's about all it won't grow. You buy a pint for 98c and dilute it four ounces to the gallon, which gives you an idea of its strength.
You can use it to fortify plants after you've transplanted them; you can use it on new or old lawns—anything. It won't burn your plants out, either. Apparently the secret lies in certain hormones incorporated into the mixture.

Sprout is quite new. De-Moist is a product you've used before, probably. The manufacturers now have a new model. You hang it in your closet, damp basement, television set or refrigerator and watch the indicator to see when it's saturated.
It's the indicator that's new.

When the drum is full of moisture, you'll dry it out in the oven and use it again. It's dripless, too, and costs $1.69. Maybe it's the answer to the old one about "... it's the humidity."

On defense, the entire left side (anchored by the durable Tom Hennon) graduated, but the replacements are making good progress. At this writing, it's Ron Huseh and Harvey Mathis, ends; sophomore Pete Milano and Pete Weimar, tackle; Brad Glass and Jerry Muys (pronounced "Mize") guards. The latter was not out for football last year but has come along well as a junior.

The big worries that Charlie Caldwell and his staff are wrestling with as the Columbia opener nears are in the backfield. On offense, the entire starting quartet must be replaced; defensively, the secondary will go with only halfback Jack Newell as a really experienced player and he sat out the last six games last season with a broken leg.

Actually, three spots in the starting offensive backfield are pretty well set. Ned Jannotta, a senior who has turned in much solid defensive play in the last two seasons, is the pick for tailback. Chosen to replace Dick Kazmaier, he is, in effect, stepping into the "toughest college football job in America,"

The 21-year old alumnus of New Trier High School in Illinois is good enough so that, even in directly following the nation's finest player of the 1951 season, he will probably never look bad by comparison. Jannotta gives evidence of matching Kazmaier's ability running to the inside and picking his blockers. He hasn't the speed that Kaz could unfurl on the devastating end sweeps, but he'll be adequate there, and more.

He will probably suffer most in comparison with Kaz as a passer, because you don't see a player with Kazmaier's deadly accuracy more than once in a decade. Jannotta, however, will do all right.

Two other spots are also being well taken care of. Dick Yaffa, 170-lb. quarter-miler on the track team in the spring, has impressed so thoroughly as wingback that Bob Unger, back after a year's service in the Navy, has been shifted to —Continued on Page 9

Dodge Honors Reef. Martin Reef, salesman for the Arthur J. Turney Motor Co., has been named a charter member of the Dodge "400" Club and given a special pin in recognition of "outstanding accomplishments in the retailing of Dodge cars and trucks." The organization is composed of top Dodge salesmen in all parts of the nation.

The club is to be permanently organized, with membership each year determined by the best individual sales records. Mr. Reef's work was cited by Dodge's general sales manager as "a splendid achievement."

Group Arts Plans. Princeton Group Arts will open its fall season with an entertainment program and tea Sunday from 4 to 6:30 at the YMCA, 102 Witherspoon Street. Artists from Princeton and Trenton will give brief recitals, while William Brettnall, Group Arts chairman, and Rex Goreleigh, director, will speak on the organization's aims.

Miscellany. Senator H. Alexander Smith will speak here on October 3 at a meeting sponsored by the Princeton Republican Club and on October 28 before the Rotary Club. The Republican Club will open centrally located headquarters later this month.

Curt Campaigne, national AVC chairman, and Merle Miller, reporter and author, will speak before the Princeton chapter of AVC Wednesday night at 8:30 at Avalon, 59 Bayard Lane. Mr. Miller's topic will be "Loyalty, Liberalism and Subversion," as he discusses the efforts of self-appointed censors to impose their standards of loyalty and patriotism on other Americans.

The public is invited to attend. AVC officers for the coming months are Edgar Lane, chairman; James Delano, treasurer; Lester Tibbals, secretary.

The New Jersey Poll
STEVENSON LOSES GROUND
TO EISENHOWER IN STATE,
LATEST SURVEY INDICATES

Results of the second statewide "trial heat" of voter preference by Princeton Research Service's New Jersey Poll show General Eisenhower running ahead of Governor Stevenson by a margin of 9.6%.

It must be understood that today's Poll findings reflect only current opinion and that much can happen during the next 47 days to change people's minds.

When Princeton Research Service's New Jersey Poll staff reporters asked a representative cross-section of the state's voters:

"Right now, which of the two candidates, Stevenson, the Democrat, or Eisenhower, the Republican, do you personally favor for President?"

The vote was:

Eisenhower	50.6%
Stevenson	41.0
Undecided	2.0

When the "undecided voters on this question were asked which way they "leaned," the figures became:

Eisenhower	53.8%
Stevenson	44.2
Undecided	2.0

A comparison of today's findings with those reported by the New Jersey Poll August 21 shows that Eisenhower has registered a 1.3% gain; Stevenson, a 1.3% loss. The August 21 New Jersey Poll results on the same question showed: Eisenhower 52.5%; Stevenson 45.5%; Undecided 2%.

The split in sentiment among Democrats, Republicans and Independents is worthy of particular mention.

For instance, one out of every six Democrats in the state (16%) at the present time says he favors Eisenhower; whereas only about half as many Republicans (7.5%) say they favor Stevenson.

At the same time, Independents favor Eisenhower over Stevenson by a substantial margin.

Here's how those who classified themselves as Democrats voted in today's survey:

Eisenhower	16%
Stevenson	83
Undecided	1

And here's how regular members of the GOP voted:

Eisenhower	92.5%
Stevenson	7.5

And here's the way the Independent vote in the state went:

Eisenhower	57%
Stevenson	38
Undecided	5

Richard L. Anderson, Jr., of 3 Snowden Lane, has been appointed assistant to Howard W. Stepp, University Registrar, and will also serve as office manager. Mr. Anderson, Princeton High School '41 and Brown University '45, has been in the registrar's office since 1947, following service with the Naval Air Force. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of 91 Moore Street, he supervises the use of International Business Machines in the registrar's office.

Harley R. Salzman, Grovers Mill Road, Princeton Junction, was fined $20 for reckless driving by Magistrate Paul R. Chescho Tuesday and lost his license for an indefinite period. He also was convicted of disorderly conduct, paying $5 court costs and receiving a suspended sentence.

SPORTS IN PRINCETON

The thought behind using both Unger and the able Homer Smith as fullbacks is to enable them to repopell each other sufficiently so that each can go on defense if needed. Smith is a toughline linebacker, teaming with Dave Hickok last year, while Unger may occasionally be inserted in the safety position.

All three are inexperienced signal callers, and that's why the postgame celebration is wide open with a little more than a week left before defense of the Ivy title begins. Caldwell, who has concentrated solely during a two-hour scrimmage last Saturday on hearting every play called by his quarterbacks, lobbed this problem to "head and shoulders" above any other we're working on.

Johnny Stuegan, the coach who's largely responsible for Princeton's tremendous defensive

fensive platoon occasionally if

King's Inn went into two extra innings to top the All-Stars in its league, winning 7-4 after being down 3-0 and 6-2. Ginny Merdon bested Alice Kleunji and Beulah Elms, with Marilyn Jones coming in with a ninth-inning out. The Grace Cicchino to break up the contest.

Friday night saw King's Inn take its third straight from the Gulf States, 7-1, to win the playoff and retain its title. Ginny Merdon won that game and also a 5-1 triumph over the All-Stars. The girls are now the well-learned victors in five games.

The National League playoffs appear to be going to the Nassau Soccer Club, which last week won its second game from ETS 1 in the finals by a 3-1 count. One more victory would do it.

The American League was still in the semi-final round at the start of the week. Oldf Movers topped the Sportsman's Club last week 5-4, to advance to the final round. The winner of its series to the Generics 15-1.

A 3-3 tie followed but will have to be replayed. The Phantoms took the Sportsman, 3-0, in the first contest of their series.

A black and white photograph showing a close-up of a house's exterior. The roof is covered in dark, textured shingles. A prominent white gable structure with a multi-paned window is visible. The window has several small panes. The overall style is that of a vintage advertisement.

The weather is with you—not "agin" you—when you re-roof or repair your roof at this time of year. And when the job is done, you and your family will have the comforting assurance that you've locked out rain and water seepage for years on end.

Whether you choose the popular self-locking type or quick-to-apply asphalt strip shingles, you can count on either material to provide many years of dependable service. Our shingles come in a wide range of solid and blended colors and can be installed in a variety of ways. They are shock-resistant cut easily with knife or shears. They're thoroughly saturated, then coated with refined asphalt into which mineral granules are firmly imbedded. Every step in manufacturing is closely controlled to insure dependability and long life. All shingles of this type make a long-lasting roof of enduring beauty.

Everything is here to help you modernize, repair and "comfortize" your home. Terms to suit.

Burt Lancaster leaps about athletically as the pirate who is vowing himself with Caribbean rebels against a European king. An 18th century tale of derring-do, the film includes submarines, TNT, aircraft, pretty girls and saving tongue-in-cheek treatment. Nick Cravat assists in three-ring circus style and Eve Bartok is the love interest.

Woman of the North Country (Fri. - Sat.) is another of those struggle-on-the-frontier sagas. The area in question this time is the Mesabi iron ore ranges in Minnesota. Ruth Hussey as a power-mad heiress owns a lot of it and Rod Cameron is trying to take it away from her for development purposes. Slow-moving, but interrupted occasionally for gunplay and fistieuffs.

Pat and Mike (Mon.-Tues.) returns for a second run as one of the most successful comedies of the season. A spightly offering of both high and low comedy, the film has the sure-fire Katherine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy combination. Miss Hepburn plays a superb lady athlete and Mr. Tracy a pugnacious sports promoter from the Lindy's set.

Island Rescue (Wed.-Thurs.) is performed for a goddess among cows, Venus, the triumph of scientific breeding. David Niven heads the cast of Britishers bent on wresting the bovine prize from Nazi forces by a commando raid on a

You may like your present car... but this Aero Willys you're going to LOVE!

Come in and take a low-and-lovely Aero-Wing or Aero-Ace out on the road.

Take it easy at first. That's no ordinary engine under that down-swept hood—it's the power-crammed F-head Hurricane 6—and it will sprint from 20 to 60 in a matter of seconds.

Head into a hairpin curve and feel the roadsteadiness you get with a 23-inch center of gravity. Idle it down, then stomp on it.

See how Willys' exclusive rubber-cushioned drive system swallows up tremor and vibration.

Drive at normal speed over rough, bumpy road and you'll say we're modest in calling it an "airborne" ride.

Check all else you get in an Aero Willys: Visibility that lets you see all four fenders. Seating width, front and rear, 61 inches. And mileage with the Hurricane Engine and overdrive* that, speed for speed, under the same conditions, surpasses every other six-passenger American car!

Fall in love with it? You'll be wild about it! Come on in... try it!

IT'S NEW TO US

scissors to save money on clothes, that Sears, Roebuck retail stores (ours is at 73 Palmer Square West) have launched a new pattern service.

If you have a dress or wardrobe in mind, you can thumb through Butterick pattern books: the big fat one that comes out each season, and the monthly leaflets with new designs and a "special" on the back. (October's special is a school girl's cover-up apron for cooking class, crafts, etc.)

Then you can look over another booklet made especially for Sears. The one they have now features back-to-school-and-college clothes. Over each Butterick sketch is a swatch of material so you can see, feel, and get some ideas about the fabric most suited to your pattern. Then you order fabric and pattern from Sears. Once you take a look, you'll sign up for a whole outfit.

Straight From Brazil. Dr. Samuel S. Rizzo, a Princetonian, got homesick for the unblended coffees of his native Brazil and instead of wasting away with nostalgia, he arranged to import some for American coffee drinkers. So—there is a new coffee on sale at Banman's, 10 Nassau, and we think you'll enjoy experimenting with it.

This coffee is roasted unblended. It is—and we quote the standard classification — "Santos 2/3 type, greenish, solid bean, good roast, desirable cup, genuine Bourbon." If you're a connoisseur, you probably know what that means! All we know is that it makes a rich heavy coffee.

Economy here, you see: you don't need much to brew a good cup. We found the price remarkably low: 98c a pound. Why not surprise your next dinner guests?

Can salami be exquisite? We think so. The new delicatessen counter at Banman's carries a brand of salami that deserves the adjective, Lean, tender and spiced just so. It's made by the Formosa Kosher Sausage Company, the same company makes a pastrami that's too good even for adjectives—(and you know how pastrami-lovers are with adjectives!)

Try the spiced ham, too, or the boiled ham. As the man behind the counter says, with a lean and tender look in his eye, "I just love to eat good food . . ."

Hey, Mom, It's Santa Claus! All right, so it's September. At Tiger Auto, 26 Witherspoon, it's Christmas in the toy department. (This September business isn't so silly; why not select a toy, make a deposit and have it laid aside? Then you won't be disappointed.)

To commence, We saw a doll, kiddie-widdies, and she has a heart that beats. Her eyes open and close and she has real hair and so on, but it's the heart that counts. What happens if she develops a leaky valve or a thrombosis we do not know. Tiger Auto does not provide electro-cardiograms. She's about $10. Oh, yes, three curlers come with her. For that hair, you know. (But no stethoscope.)

For males, a road grader 26 inches long with better tires than we've got on our car. It cuts away hills, scoops up dirt, levels roads and costs $15.95. Same company makes a super dump-truck that's even longer. These toys will last a child until he's old enough to vote.

Then we found a Repeater ping-pong gun. Shoots five ping-pong balls: ping-ping-ping-ping-ping, just like that. "Harmless fun for the whole family," the box says, but we suggest you take to the woods Christmas morning. Costs $1.98, with a one-ping model for $2.95.

And don't miss: a Model-T Ford that backfires using caps; a Hickory-Dickory clock with a mouse that jumps out the top. Seared the socks off us.

RIPTURED? Certified truss fitting that guarantees a perfect fit is the answer to your problem. Be assured of comfort and safety! All fittings done personally by Edward A. Thorne, certified truss fitter. 168 Nassau Street.
